

|                             | Morning                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Afternoon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Evening |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Saturday 16 October  | Diplomatic Golf Challenge - Golf Club FioranelloOrganized by DI.GA.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |         |
| Sunday 17 October    | Diplomatic Golf Challenge - Golf Club FioranelloOrganized by DI.GA.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |         |
| Monday 18 October    | 09.00 - 12.00 Diplomacy of Solidarity in cooperation with UnicefLiceo Classico Montale - Meeting with high school studentsparticipants: Andrea Cadioli e Brenda Lodigiani Taking part: Paola Rita Stella, Counc. of School Policies, Province of Rome                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 15.00 Parallel Diplomacy: Peaceful Wind over the Caucasie Region3 <sup>a</sup> University of Rome - Associazione RondineProf. Leopoldo Nuti, Prof. Francesco Guida, Dr. Alberto Basciani, Prof. Franco Vaccari, Prof. Gaga Shurgaia                                                                                           |         |
| Tuesday 19 October   | 09.30 Struggling against tax heavens with diplomatic toolsSala del Refettorio, Parlamento Palazzo S. Macuto (by reservation)With Hon. Maurizio Leo, Dott. Luigi Magistro, On. Leonardo Domenici, Col. Andrea Palandri, Prof. Giuseppe Marino, Dott. Paolo Ciocca - Moderator Dott. Gennaro Sangiuliano                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 16.00 - 18.30 Interpreting Diplomacy (by reservation)Sala del Refettorio, Parlamento, Palazzo S. Macuto - Coordinated by Prof. Michele Rak and the participation of Dott.ssa Olga Fernando, Dr. Stefano Marrone, Prof. Francesco Sergio Straniero, Dr. Umberto Cini, Dr. Reda Hammad, Dr.ssa Chiara Ingrao                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 18.30 Diplomacy in the Digital AgeRoof Garden Marriott Hotel Flora (by invitation)Min. Plen. Aldo Amati, Dott. Pierluigi Puglia, Dott. Andreas Von Brandt - Introduction: Davide Giacalone,                                                                                                                                          |         |
| Wednesday 20 October | 09.30 - 11.30 How to accede to DiplomacyLiceo Classico Visconti - with Min. Emanuela d'Alessandro Direttrice Istituto Diplomatico MAE, Dr. Lucio Battistotti, Dott.ssa Selene Biffi09.30 Italy and the Middle East Issue: before and after 1989Università Tor Vergata - dr. Umberto Ranieri, dr. Maurizio Caprara, prof. Silvio Pons, prof. Andrea Romano, prof. Alfonso Giordano, prof. Roberto Reali, Amb. Guido Lenzi                                                                                                                                                            | 15.00 - 17.30 Cineforum: Cuba, the causes of the EmbargoUniversity Roma 3, Aula Magna - Dott. Duccio Basosi - prof.ssa Alessandra LoviniProf. Leopoldo Nuti - Prof. Daniele Fiorentino - Dott. Leonardo Campus, Dr.ssa Marilena Gala                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 18.00 The future European DiplomacySIOI - Piazza S. Marco, 51with the participation: Amb. Ettore Francesco Sequi, Prof. Federiga Bindi, Dr. Raffaello Matarazzo, Dr. Maurizio Massari                                                                                                                                                |         |
| Thursday 21 October  | 09.30 - 12.00 Making Peace (Community of Saint Egidio)Liceo Scientifico AmaldiOrganized by the Community of Saint Egidio with the participation of Dr. Francesco Casarelli, Dr. Mauro Garofalo, Chiara Rita and Alessandro Iannamorino09.30 - 12.00 Master of Journalism “Maria Grazia Cutuli”Università Tor Vergata - Sala Riunioni Dip. Studi Filologici, Linguistici e Letterari ed. B (Il Piano)Daniele Mastrogiacomo: “War Correspondent: techniques and suggestions for a profession that has changed. What to do and how to react during an asymmetric conflict” | 15.00 - 16.30 Encounter with Japanese DiplomatsVisit to the Japanese Embassy in Italy and presentation of the functions and duties of the Embassy to the university students interested in diplomacy (by invitation)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 18.30 - 20.00 Conversation with the public: “How to write about the Italian Foreign Policy”Libreria Enarcano - Via delle Paste 106Dott. Maurizio Caprara, Amb. Guido Lenzi, Prof. Paolo Fabbri, Prof. Antonio VarsoriIn this occasion Rubbettino Editore will present its “Studi Diplomatici” and “Studi Internazionali” series. |         |
| Friday 22 October    | 11.00 Welcome from AuthoritiesCampidoglio - Aula Pietro da CortonaIntroduce Dr. Giorgio BartolomucciHon. Giovanni Alemanno - Mayor of Rome12.00 - 13.00 Africa: New Challenges for the European DiplomacyS.E. Fatouma Mireille Ausseil, Min. Plen. Marco Claudio Vozzi, Cons. Liliana Murekatete                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 15.00 - 18.00 Diplomacy: Crisis and Conflicts Campidoglio - Aula Giulio CesareCoordinator: Emanuele Giordana - Min. Plen. Pasquale Ferrara - Min. Plen. Fabrizio Romano, Min. Plen. Ettore Sequi, Min. Plen. Lamberto Zannier, Min. Plen. Inigo LambertiniLecture: Italy and G8: a point of view of an economistProf. Luigi Paganetto, Presidente Fondazione Economia Tor Vergata - Discussant: Jean Claude Thébault, Head of BEPA - Michael Maclay, Executive Chairman, Montrose Associates15.00 - 18.00 Diplomacy International Tournament and Opening Photo Exhibition dedicated to the Campaign for the awarding of the Nobel prize for Peace to African WomenGalleria A. Sordi | 20.30 Dinner with Speakers: Can Diplomacy help to develop new markets?Villa MadamaDr. Paolo Zegna - Amb. Umberto Vattani - Prof.ssa Pia Luisa Bianco(by invitation only: representatives of industry, finance and banks)                                                                                                         |         |
| Saturday 23 October  | 09.00 - 13.00 Health Diplomacy: MalariaCamera di Commercio, Aula del Consiglio, Via del BurroCoordinator Prof. Fulvio Esposito - dr. Andreas Bosman - dr. George Jagoe - dr. Marco Corsi - Amb. Theodore Loko - Cons. Liliana Makatelele - S.E. Mamadou Kamara Dekamo09.00 - 11.00 Round Table - Diplomacy: Woman is better?Tempio di AdrianoProf.ssa Marta Dassù - H.E. Amb. Carla Mucavi - Min. Elisabetta Belloni - H.E. Amb. Tasnim Aslam - H.E. Ertharin Cousin - Prof. Pietro Pastorelli - Amb. Anna Della Croce                                                  | 15.30 -16.15 Lectio Magistralis: The Birth of Modern DiplomacySir Ivor Roberts Introduction: Prof. Andrea Romano16.30 - 18.30 On Trial: Armand - Jean du Plessis de RichelieuBy Prof.ssa Marina Formica, Dr. Giorgio BartolomucciJudge: Prof. Francesco Saverio MariniP.M.: Prof. Paolo Garonna, Prof. Fabio MartelliC. D.: Prof. Alessandro Roveri, Prof. Alessandro MeluzziProclamation Winners Diplomacy Tournament                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 20.30 Gala DinnerVilla Spada(Interpretation of the Gala Dinner Menu Rome Treaty 1957)Introduction: Dott. Aurelio ReginaWelcome Greetings: On. Antonio Tajani                                                                                                                                                             |         |
| Sunday 24 October    | 09.00 - Welcome: Palazzo Valentini - On. Nicola Zingaretti09.30 - 13.00 Round Table: New Ideas to re-write the FutureSala Consiliare - Dr. Ayesha Siddiqi - Dr. Brian Katulis - Dr. Rouzbeh Parsi - Dr. Nicola Pedde - Dr. Elisa Giunchi09.30 - 13.00 Round Table: “Teaching and Learning Diplomacy”Sala Di Liegro - Keynote Speaker: Prof. Nabil Ayad - Coordinator: Dott. Larry Gray with: Drs. Jutta Edthofer, Amb. Alexei Meshkov, Dr. Mladen Andrić, Prof. Joseph Mifsud, Prof. Stefano Bartolini Min. Pl. Emanuela D'Alessandro - Amb. Fabio Migliorini            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | END OF MEETING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |         |